

My First Year™ Scrapbook Calendar A Case History

The undated My First Year Scrapbook Calendar was a great gift for the first time moms-to-be who participated in the birthing class preparing for the arrival of their new bundle of joy. The Pediatric Partners Clinic appreciated that the calendar was a gift that the baby wasn't going to outgrow and could become a keepsake for years to come. By keeping their name in front of the parents for the first year, it also reminded them to participate in the baby wellness program.
