Lake Christmas Twilight - Canvasbacks
A large flock of birds and geese fly over a lake in the mountains of North America. Canvasbacks, or "Gulls" as they are called, spend most of the day water or resting on an open water and fly to shallow water feeding grounds in the evening. The geese fly over the lake in the mountains of North America. The geese fly over the lake in the mountains of North America. The geese fly over the lake in the mountains of North America.
